

Choose a morning visit

Partner A | Learner page 2 | Do not show this card to B

You and your partner are planning a visit for a friend. Your friend is free tomorrow from 10 am to 12 noon. They want a relaxed visit and time to talk. Rain is possible. Travel is already arranged and fits the time available. All details are fictional.

Your information

Place	Opening hours
Library	10 am to 5 pm
Park	9 am to 6 pm

Your partner knows what you can do at each place and whether it costs anything. You know the opening hours. Answer from your card; do not invent extra details.

1 Find the missing information

Ask about both places. Listen and complete your notes.

Place	Cost	What can we do there	Anything to remember
Library
Park

Help if needed: Could you tell me if the library is free? What can we do there? Could you repeat that, please?

2 Compare your ideas

Both people must suggest a place and give a reason. Ask your partner one follow-up question. Agree a visit and a plan for rain.

I would choose ... because ... | What about ...? | I agree, but ...

3 Say it again

Listen to one correction or helpful phrase from your teacher. Repeat your recommendation using it. Then ask a new question without reading the phrase bank if you are ready.
