

Messages with feelings

-ed and -ing adjectives · A2-B1 · Work on your own. Answers are on page 2.

A Match each message to a feeling

Use each word once: bored · confused · excited · frightened.

1 NOOR

Three meetings about the same topic. No decisions. Two hours to go!

Feeling: _____

2 ALEX

The lights went out and something moved behind me. I ran outside!

Feeling: _____

3 BEA

The email says Room 6. The app says Room 9. Where am I supposed to go?

Feeling: _____

4 LUIS

They've chosen my design! I'm presenting it tomorrow. I can't wait!

Feeling: _____

B Complete the sentences

Use the -ed or -ing form of the word in brackets.

5. Two room numbers! The information is _____. (confuse)

6. Nothing changed in the meeting. It was _____. (bore)

7. A noise in a dark room can be _____. (frighten)

8. They chose my design. That's _____ news! (excite)

C Change the camping-story ending

Reminder: Max and Lena put their borrowed tent up inside out. In the lesson story, they won a pizza dinner for the funniest tent.

Write four sentences on the back. Keep the tent mistake but invent a new ending. Use one -ed feeling and one -ing cause. Check that the feeling matches what happens.

Check the feeling and cause

Try the tasks first. Your story can have a different ending.

A Match each message to a feeling

1. bored · Noor is stuck in a long, repetitive meeting.
2. frightened · Alex was scared by movement in the dark.
3. confused · Bea has two different room numbers.
4. excited · Luis is looking forward to presenting his design.

B Complete the sentences

5. confusing · The information causes confusion.
6. boring · The meeting causes boredom.
7. frightening · The noise can cause fear.
8. exciting · The news causes excitement.

C One possible ending

The owner asked Max and Lena to show everyone their inside-out tent. They felt confused because they did not know why. Then the owner gave them two concert tickets. That was exciting news!

Other endings work. Check that the feeling and its cause make sense.
